

Visa Direct Insurance Claims Payments

Transform your customer claims experience with Visa Direct

Today's insurance customers expect faster claims payments

A poor claims experience is often the main reason customers change providers. By making claims payments faster and easier, you can improve your customers' experience and help strengthen their loyalty.¹

85%

of customers are dissatisfied with their insurer's digital experience.¹

58%

of surveyed claimants' reason for dissatisfaction during a claim is that the claim payment took longer than they thought it should.¹

A better, faster way to pay claims

Visa Direct allows insurance providers to offer customers the ability to collect claims, including same day pay-outs, as soon as claims are approved. Visa Direct is a VisaNet capability that enables payments directly to customers in real time² using card credentials. Working with a Visa Direct solutions provider, insurers can transform traditional payment processes into digital experiences that offer:

Speed

Real-time payments to eligible debit or reloadable prepaid cards, with funds available within 30 minutes.²

Simplicity

Simple digital experiences that don't require bank and routing numbers, and are available 24/7/365.

Scale

Facilitates payments across channels and use cases, to over 3.2 billion cards in 200+ countries.

Security

Backed by Visa's multi-layered security, with robust risk controls and AML/sanctions framework.

Many types of insurance providers can benefit from real-time² payment solutions

Car claims

Property and casualty

Agent commissions

Worker compensation

Life and liability

Disaster relief

Real-time² claims payments with Visa Direct can help create a differentiated, digital insurance offering

Build customer preference

Defend against other insurers with a seamless and faster payment experience.

59%

of insurers believe they will be challenged by online service providers and aggregators.

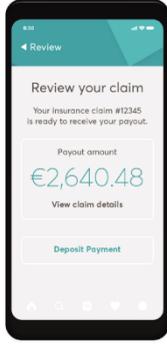

Offer payments to debit card

Deliver the convenience of payments to the cards customers use daily.

70%

of consumers prefer their debit card to using their bank account and routing numbers for payments.³

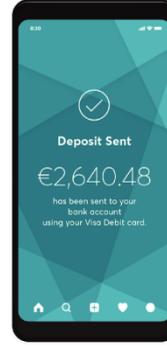

A faster, simpler way to pay out insurance claims⁴

1. Customer receives claim approval notification

2. Customer selects real-time² pay-out to debit card

3. Customer receives real-time² payment and confirmation

As the insurance industry moves to a more customer-centric model with faster settlement of high-volume, small claims, our platform and Visa Direct are being recognised by many in the industry as the best way forward.
